

Vacancy Postings

Position: Certified Instructional Position for 2022-2023
Subject Area: Secondary Mathematics
Job Title: High School Mathematics Teacher (Grades 9-12)
Vacancy Posting: Begin Date: Wednesday, April 27, 2022
End Date: Wednesday, May 11, 2022

Job Goal / Description: There are two major goals for these positions:

1. Demonstrate a high level of knowledge regarding the secondary mathematics curriculum:
 - a. Areas of emphasis may include one or more of the following: Geometry, Algebra, Calculus
 - b. Grades: 9, 10, 11, 12
 - c. Dual Credit Certification considered
2. Possess a strong passion for teaching mathematics and engage and equip high school aged students in effort to cultivate their career and college readiness

Reports To: High School Principal

Statement of Responsibilities: See attached "Statement of Responsibilities" document

Minimum Qualifications:

- Professional Educator License
- Appropriate endorsement in Secondary Mathematics
- Successful work experience with secondary students
- Experience and knowledge in effective behavior management strategies appropriate for secondary students
- Experience in teaching high school mathematics
- Experience and/or familiarity with Professional Learning Communities and Visible Learning are preferred
- A strong willingness to proactively collaborate with other teachers in the development of curriculum, assessments and instructional strategies that reflect best practices
- Ability to use student benchmarking data to assess student strengths and weaknesses and differentiate instruction by implementing tier 2 strategies based upon the data
- Familiarity with performance tasks and a willingness to develop grade-level appropriate cross-curricular engaging tasks is preferred

Salary Range: Appropriate placement on the district certified salary schedule

Process: If interested in this position, please apply in writing or through email to Fonda Starbuck, on or before 3:30, May 11, 2022. Internal candidates will be notified by 3:00 on May 13, 2022.